End of the Year E-Ship Carrier Rate Update

The holiday season is known for bringing families together, shopping, gifting, over-eating, and the annual Lanham E-Ship Carrier Updates. 2012 brings the retirement of the FedEx API interface, and all Lanham FedEx customers will need to switch to the new FedEx Web Services. Please attend one of these webinars to learn more about the FedEx interface change, as well as the UPS and US Postal changes for 2012.
